The Residence of Choice for Seniors

EPOCH Senior Healthcare of Chestnut Hill offers the exceptional quality in both lifestyle and care that you deserve.

We also offer memory support programs in our Cedarwood Unit, a secure unit that provides a safe and stimulating environment for those with Alzheimer's, dementia and related memory disorders. Our memory support programs offer care in a dignified manner and includes:

The Club for individuals with early-stage memory challenges.

Namaste, meaning "to honor the spirit within," provides a comfortable and peaceful environment for individuals with progressive dementia.

For those who are more independent, Boylston Place at Chestnut Hill is available right on campus. Our assisted living community blends daily support with an exceptional lifestyle. Designed for personal growth, our life enriching activities encourage participation and interaction with peers. Simply said, EPOCH Senior Healthcare of Chestnut Hill is a community where seniors thrive.
